

Looks like overindulgence may have created some emotional difficulties; however with 2 aces in the present and future it would appear that you'll get a fresh start with things that are committed to the heart and the home. At the same time, to move ahead again, you will need to move past some emotional baggage that could be preventing you from fully enjoying a relationship(s).

10-card Tree of Seer Reading

"The Past" can literally represent the last few hours, few days, few weeks, etc. Just as the future can represent an upcoming time frame. My card readings are "validating". A reading won't tell you something that you don't already know on some level of consciousness; however, it can clarify known situations or bring information to you that needs to be dealt with. Most cards in the tarot have an astrological influence. This means that they could represent a person in your life by way of their birthday/astrological sun sign. I have placed that information with the "card" section. This means that the card could represent interaction with a person in your life AND/OR will represent the action of the card. Don't be deterred if you received the 2 of Wands, but you don't know anybody with a birthday between Mar. 21 - 31. The interpretation of the card will probably be more relevant to you then. However, I find that in many of my readings, the cards will be multifaceted and "fit" with people AND the situations in your life.

Also, please know that you have a beautiful thing in your life known as "free will". The past tells us where you have been and the present tells us where you are. Should you make NO CHANGE to your path, your outcome will come to pass as it is in the reading. If you don't like the outcome, simply change up something along the way to give yourself more desired results. Please enjoy your reading and may peace descend upon you as you are validated through a Universal Energy (some call it God).
